

Mission Statement

To educate parents and caregivers by distributing information and demonstrating practical approaches for teaching safe touching principles and body boundaries to young children.

To provide accessible and affordable resources reinforcing our program goal of equipping families with tools for sexual abuse prevention.

vascular smooth muscle